

FALL IN LOVE

with Senior Living

Think back to the autumn seasons of your youth – plucking colorful apples at the peak of their ripeness, the aroma of Mom’s homemade cinnamon cider warming your bones as the scent wafts through the air, and joining friends and family at small fairs and festivals for hayrides and pumpkin harvesting. There was no better time to enjoy the beauty of the outdoors and embrace family, neighbors, and friends alike.

While Mom and Dad used to remind you to quickly grab a jacket before you raked the leaves, today they may struggle to find someone to help them with everyday activities. Mom still remembers how to pinch the exact amount of salt for her famous strawberry-rhubarb pie, but has she remembered to clear the gutters for the upcoming winter? What about Dad’s carefully curated yard? Is the path clear for trick-or-treaters or has little Johnny from across the street forgotten that he agreed to lend a hand?

At Rittenhouse Village At Lehigh Valley, we offer seniors a warm and cozy atmosphere coupled with the perfect amount of personalized care, enlightening lifestyle programs, and community involvement that makes fall a season worth celebrating. Chef-prepared sensational menus and daily activities allow our residents to embrace seasonal changes with the same glee that you and your children do.

As summer comes to a close and the chill in the air perks up your senses, remember that Mom and Dad are excited too and deserve to enjoy yet another autumn with the ones they love. Call today to schedule a free lunch and community tour, and fall in love with senior living at Rittenhouse Village At Lehigh Valley.
