

People of Our Community Who Make A Difference

Texas Bank and Trust celebrates the forty-second anniversary of the Longview Student Board of Directors, recognizing outstanding high school seniors who have demonstrated academic excellence, leadership, and a commitment to community service. We are proud to introduce the following members of the 2019-2020 Student Board.

KERRIS CAMERON, daughter of Kristy and Chris Cameron, is a senior at Longview High School. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Z-Club, AMBUCS, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and the softball team. Kerris believes she is impacting the world through her service on mission trips and by building Amtrykes for disabled individuals. She plans to attend The University of Texas at Austin and study biology. Kerris' future goals include earning a medical degree and working as a dentist.

ASHLY JAMES, daughter of Wendy Carter and Keith James, is a senior at Pine Tree High School. She is the president of the speech and debate team, founding captain of the mock trial team, and a member of the National Honor Society. She is also a member Mu Alpha Theta mathematics honor society, student council, Z-Club, and the swim team. Ashly believes she is impacting the world by exhibiting leadership qualities of compassion, reasonability, and cooperation in her daily interactions. She plans to attend Rice University and study economics. Ashly's future goals include working as a lawyer or judge. Ashly was elected by her peers to serve as chairperson of the Longview Student Board of Directors.

FAITH JORDAN, daughter of Danielle and Kyle Jordan, is a senior at Spring Hill High School. She is a section leader in the marching band, a member of the University Interscholastic League competition team in computers, and an active volunteer with her church and her school. Faith believes she is impacting the world by striving to be a productive member of her family and her community. She plans to attend Baylor University and study pre-medicine. Faith's future goals include working as a surgeon.

HAYNER BOORMAN, daughter of Janette and Ronnie Boorman, is a senior at Trinity School of Texas. She is the president of the bowling club, a co-editor of the yearbook, a co-coordinator for the senior prom, and a member of the Z-Club, Spanish club, and the cheerleading, track, golf, and basketball teams. Hayner believes she is impacting the world by making an effort to bring a smile to one person's face each day. She plans to attend The University of Texas at Austin and study pre-law. Hayner's future goals include working as a criminal defense attorney.
